

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

For immediate release:
January 12, 2005

The Canadian Francophone Games of the Fédération de la jeunesse canadienne-française are just around the corner!

In just a few months from now, from July 20 to 24, 2005, about one thousand young people aged 13 to 18 from each province and territory in Canada will gather for the Canadian Francophone Games in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Hundreds of youth will test their skills in an atmosphere of healthy competition in four sports and four artistic disciplines as they develop aptitudes like leadership and organizational thinking.

An excellent opportunity for French-speaking youth to showcase their talents in the various sports and artistic disciplines, the FJCF Canadian Francophone Games foster cultural pride and self-confidence. Each edition of the Canadian Francophone Games attracts more than 10,000 visitors from across Canada to the host city.

For up-to-date information about the Canadian Francophone Games, visit the website at www.jeux.fjcf.ca.

A pan-Canadian mission

The Fédération de la jeunesse canadienne-française, founded in 1974, is a nationwide organization that supports French-speaking youth aged 14 to 25. The FJCF carries out its mission by working closely with its 11 associate members representing nine provinces and two territories.

- 30 -

Information: Ève Cardinal, Media Relations
(613) 789-4133 / eve@nbac.com