

Official Launch of the Canadian Francophone Games Edmonton 2008

Edmonton, August 14, 2008 – The Canadian Francophone Games Edmonton 2008 are proud to invite you to the Opening Ceremonies on:

Thursday, August 14, 2008, 8:00 pm
Heritage Amphitheatre, William Hawrelak Park
9330 Groat Road
Edmonton, Alberta

The Opening Ceremonies will be hosted by Steve Jodoin and Renelle Fagnan-Roy, co-hosts of the Oniva show broadcasted on Radio-Canada, as well as Casey Edmunds of the dance group Zéphyr. During the evening, you will have the opportunity to see a performance by Ishtar circus' art group duo. The Philosophil et les Philophiles as well as S.T.U.G.A. will offer a musical performance.

We will also announce the name of the host city of the 5th Canadian Francophone Games.

The Opening Ceremonies will be preceded by the participants' procession that will start at 7:00 pm at University of Alberta. The participants will head down to Hawrelak Park on 116th Street, between 89th Street and Saskatchewan Drive.

The event is open to the public and free for everyone.
